NUMBER 72.

In Judge Smith's Court.

Wm. Horne, the short-change artist here during the recent street fair, was tried before Judge Smith yesterday, the charge of "converting money of another to his own use" being changed to petit larceny. He confessed to his guilt and the Judge gave him three months in jail at hard labor in each case. He will therefore remain in our city for six months as a boarder of Jailer Judy.

Sam Adams, charged with breach of the peace, was fined $14.50 each in two cases.

Chas. Breckinridge, colored, who was on trial before Judge Smith five years ago when the alarm was given that the Court House was on fire, was for the first time since that occasion before the Judge again. The charge against him was breach of the peace and he was assessed $14.50.

Sabbath Observance League.

Rev. Dr. Thompson, Chairman of the Sabbath Observance League of the United States, will deliver a lecture on "Sabbath Observance" at the Christian Church, Sunday evening, at the usual hour of worship.

Capt. Casey Goes to China.

Capt. H. L. Casey, now in the Government in the Philippines, has been appointed to an important post in the Chinese army, with the rank of Captain of Cavalry and a salary of $3,500 a year. His duties will be to instruct the Chinese cavalry in horsemanship.

Capt. Casey is formerly of Ver- sailles, but is well-known in this city, having married a Paris girl, Miss Hattie McIlvain, daughter of Mr. J. W. McIlvain.

He has resigned from the U. S. service and goes to Pekin to report for duty this month. On account of the education of his children they will return to Kentucky about the middle of the month.

New Grocery and Meat Firm.

We call attention to the advertisement of Kenney & Clark, the new firm who have purchased O. Edwards' stock of fancy and stable groceries and meat market, on fifth page of this issue.

Mr. C. T. Kenney and Mr. John T. Clark, the members of the new firm, are two very clever and popular young men, who solicit the old trade of the house and also the trade of their many friends in the city and county.

Millinery Hints.

Mrs. Corne Watson Baird has just returned from the East, where she has been for several weeks selecting one of the most beautiful stocks of Fall Millinery that was ever purchased for the Paris trade.

Mrs. Watson tells us that the Fall styles are the prettiest she has ever seen; the Alice Roosevelt blue, the new Bagonia shade and the greys ranging from the French gray to the gun metal, will be the prevailing colors. The receda and olive greens will also be very popular.

Mrs. Baird's stock is arriving daily, having received some beautiful Polo Turbans, which will be extremely popular, and the Dress Hats with short fronts and high backs are very smart; the walking hats with the high crowns are again in style and are nobbier than ever. Mrs. Baird extends a cordial invitation to all her old customers to call and will be glad to see many new ones. Mrs. Baird says "goods well bought are half sold" and if this is true her stock won't last long.

AMUSEMENTS.

An entire and complete change of programme each year, is the infallible rule with the management of the Great Barlow Minstrels. This is undoubtedly one of the secrets of Mr. Coburn's success, and it is now well-known among all classes of theatre goers that no matter how good a specialty may be, or how clever and successful the song or story of comedian or balladist, the new seasons performance must include a budget of entirely new vintage, and by live energetic performers if they wish to keep in the ranks of this popular company. They will be at the Grand on Saturday night.

The Butterfly Skirt will set the fashion this season. In a few days we will tell you where it can be seen. 8-2t

School Shoes.

There is a vast difference between just plain school shoes and our school shoes. Our school shoes are made by the best shoemakers in the country. We wont have a school shoe that is not a good one. That is the reason we sell so many. It is time for school shoes now. Bring the boys and girls here. You will be surprised at our values. Fall styles are now ready. School shoes in all sizes. The best line of footwear for men, women and children.

Also sole agent for Hanan and Netleton men's fine shoes.

for every home.

Many comforts and conveniences for the home are denied the masses of the people for the reason of their expense. There is, however, one comfort that is in the reach of every family from the day-laborer to the millionaire, an article which is needed and can be used to good advantage every day. This article is PARACAMPH, First Aid to the Injured, a combination of cooling, soothing, healing oils and camphor, especially prepared to quickly relieve the aches and pains of every member of the family. Mothers of course realize the necessity of such an article in their homes, and as the use of Paracamph has proven that it is far superior to and more useful than Arnica, Witch Hazel, Vaseline, Liniment, etc., it is to the interest of every mother to try Paracamph at once.
Paracamph is absolutely pure, clean and safe and its powers for quickly relieving and curing pains and aches are truly remarkable. Don't hesitate; try Paracamph to-day. Every bottle is guaranteed. Trial size 25c; family sizes 50c and $1.00. The Paris, Ky., Friday, September 8, 1905.

THE Republican Committee will hold an adjourned meeting to-morrow to determine whether or not it is advisable to nominate candidates to be voted for at the November election. At the meeting of the Committee last Saturday no decision was reached. Since then the leaders have been quietly at work to induce some Republicans to become candidates. Everybody knows that if they had the ghost of a chance, the woods would be full of Republicans eager to become candidates; the very fact that there are no Republicans seeking nominations from the party is a conclusive proof that they have no hopes whatever of success at the November election.

The Democratic ticket challenges the confidence of the whole people. We do not believe a stronger ticket was ever nominated by the party, and we are confident that in November the Democratic majority in the county will be the largest ever given.

The Democratic party is thoroughly united. There is no disaffection, and already an efficient organization has been effected, and active party workers have already polled a number of precincts, and the result so far is exceedingly gratifying. Everything is in splendid shape, and the Democrats seem to be eager for the fight, if one is to come off.

But, what is the use for the Republicans to sacrifice any of their good men. Every intelligent man in the county knows that the Democrats will win in November, and this being so, the Democrats await the action of the Republican Committee to-morrow with serence indifference. If a ticket is nominated it will be defeated so overwhelmingly that the Republicans will scarcely know they were in the fight.

Thos. A. DAVIS, editor of the bright and snappy Maysville Ledger, in referring to a recent editorial in this paper, says:

"The Editor of THE BOURBON News has not only created a sensation, but has done an actual public service by his timely and pointed remarks on 'Criminal Gossips.' These creatures are not confined to any town or county. They seem to have a free hand everywhere. No character or position is secure from their vile and cowardly assaults. Neither age nor sex enjoys any immunity. Who are these offenders? Almost invariably they are the imbibited and resentful victims of 'ill-luck'; the conscious 'failures' of life. To 'get even' with the world they must show that only the indecent, the vicious, the incapable and beastly hold the passport to success. 'Failure' is written all over the record of their own lives—and, often enough, something very much worse. Their only resource is to assail the man or woman that succeeds; and especially if that success is achieved by honest arts. The 'criminal gossip' proclaims his own incompetency by his attacks on the children of success. He carries no more weight in a community than a discharged servant or an utterly discredited 'beat'."

THE meeting of Democrats last Monday was a notice served upon Republican that there would be no division in the Democratic ranks and that the party would unitedly and earnestly support every candidate upon the ticket. There will be no scratching, and whether the Republicans nominate a full ticket or only two or three candidates the result will be the same. Of course, everybody knows the Democrats are bound to win and already they are in shape to give full assurance of a decisive victory.

BISHOP POTTER is now mentioned together with those of Levi P. Morton, W. K. and Alfred G. Vanderbilt as the founders of a new insurance company. The Bishop has recently figured as an advocate of twenty-minute sermons, and before that he achieved notoriety as the father and founder of a saloon. Now comes the Louisville Times and says it is also reported that the Bishop is interested in the cause of christianity.

Now that Russia and Japan have signed the peace treaty, the yellow fever scare throughout the South is subsiding and there seems to be a slump in news matter of the sensational sort, we think it would be a "wise" idea for the newspaper men throughout the country to clean off their old desks and prepare for the usual foot-ball casualties.

Sunflower Philosophy.

Cantaloupes are like men: some are all right and some are not.

Some women think if they can just have a black silk skirt they are all right.

A good many of us are in the position of Japan: Giving up a good deal for peace.

Some women are so dirty that if you should throw them against a wall they would stick.

When we hear that lovers old enough to be grandparents do not marry because of the opposition of their parents we always laugh.

A woman's hands get harder and rough after marriage, with the house-work she does, but probably that isn't the reason her husband doesn't hold them.

When grief overtakes a woman and eathes her without a handkerchief and she has to sniffle and wipe her eyes with her hand, her tears may be more genuine those of a woman who buries her eyes in a dainty handkerchief, but it is the handkerchief woman who gets the tender sympathy.

A Lincoln Story.

Sir Edward Monson, the veteran English diplomat, who is now visiting America, served under Lord Lyons in Washington during Lincoln's administration, and has many interesting stories of Lincoln to relate.

"A distinguished old woman," he said the other day, "once called on Lincoln and railed and stormed over some fancied wrong that she had suffered at the Government's hands.

"Mr. Lincoln listened to her politely, he talked to her in the kindly way he talked to everyone, and then after she was gone he turned to me and said:

"Little Edith heard the other day that a neighbor had shot his dog because it had grown old and cross. She studied the matter out a while and then she looked up in her mother's face and said:

"Mamma, when do you think papa will shoot Aunt Martha?"

When your ship of health strikes the hidden rock of consumption, pneumonia, etc., you are lost if you don't get help from Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. J. W. The first dose gave relief, and one bottle cured me." Sure cure for sore throat, bronchitis, coughs and colds. Guaranteed at Oberdorfer's drug store, price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Cigarette Paper To Clean Diamonds.

[Kansas City Times.]

She came in the drug store at Westport and ate an ice cream soda. She was a sweet looking girl of perhaps twenty years, quite and reserved. When she had finished she stepped over to the clerk, who was talking to a young man near the cigar case, and said:

"Would you please give me a pack of cigarette papers?"

Exhibiting no surprise whatever, the clerk handed the little package over to her, refusing pay for it. When the girl had gone the clerk's friend looked after her in a puzzled manner.

"Joe," he said, "can it be possible that such a sweet little girl as that smokes cigarettes?"

The clerk smiled. "No," he replied. "She wants those papers to use in cleaning her diamonds. Cigarette papers will do the work better than anything else I know of. She gets them here every once in a while."

What Other Presidents Missed.

[New York World.]

There is nowadays more fun for a President alive to his opportunities than was dreamed of by Washington or Adams. From the sight of the Chief Executive in a locomotive cab the nation turns to behold him cooped up in a submarine boat as it is put through its paces under the Sound. Is he next to be seen taking a flight aloft in an airship?

Students of Presidential precedents may find it interesting to trace the growth of this new form of prerogative. Mr. Cleveland touched the button which set the machinery of the Chicago World's Fair in motion, caused fountains to spurt and cascades to gush forth. Mr. Buchanan, when the first Atlantic cable was opened, was the recipient of Queen Victoria's message, the first ever flashed under the sea. But generally Presidents have contented themselves with a formal participation in novel functions.

What opportunities they allowed to slip by unutilized! What a chance there was for Jefferson when the Clermont made its famous voyage up the Hudson with Fulton! Or for Jackson at the throttle of the "Best Friend" locomotive on its first trip over the Baltimore & Ohio! What a prime occasion Grant let go when the last spike was driven on the Central Pacific. Why did he not himself deliver?

These Presidents were bound by conservatism. And what chances they did miss!—probably without ever thinking about the matter at all.

SOCIALDOM.

The Treaty Signed.

The treaty of Portsmouth was signed shortly before 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the conference room of the Navy General Store, at the Navy Yard. The firing of a National salute of nineteen guns, was the signal which told the people of Portsmouth, Kittery and New Castle that peace was an accomplished fact, the church bells in the three towns pealed forth a joyful refrain.

For forty minutes those outside the conference room anxiously awaited the signature. Suddenly an orderly dashed to the entrance of the peace building and waved his hand to the gunner a few feet away, and the opening shot of the salute rang out on the clear air of the soft September afternoon, proclaiming peace between Russia and Japan.

Real Diamonds Found in Kentucky.

The visit of David Draper, of Johannesburg, South Africa, the diamond mining expert, to investigate the supposed diamond fields of Elliott county, has attracted a number of people to that section.

The "diamond" fields of Elliott county are about 30 miles east of Owingsville, and are in the western part of the Eastern Kentucky mountains. The nearest railway station is Willard, Carter county, six miles distant, on the Chesapeake & Ohio line.
Transportation from Willard is by omnibus. The "fields" are located on Little Sandy River, on Ison Creek, and comprise several thousand acres of land, covered with rocks that are identical with the rocks that cover the South African diamond fields.

Some years ago the first evidences of diamonds were found by a party of geologists. Samples of the rocks were sent to Washington and New York, where experts pronounced the diamonds pure and equal to the South African product in value. Sporadic efforts were made to make the Kentucky fields pay, without result, and although capitalists from all over the United States came to that section, no diamonds of enough value were found to result in any lavish expenditure of money in developing the country. Some of the specimens were examined by Tiffany, of New York, and his experts pronounced them the genuine article.

Draper states that in his belief many thousand years ago the steam and mud exhaled by volcanoes came into contact with heat and pressure of the carbonaceous shales, and enveloping this shale, liberated the carbon that the shales contained. This congealing and holding in an envelope, as it were, it is believed, produces the diamond. Draper believes that machinery can be used and the extinct volcanoes found and the field be made to rival the South African mines.

About 1886 this field was examined, specimens produced by geologists and forwarded to the United States Geological Survey at Washington.
There the experts made microscopic examinations and disclosed the eruptive peridotite of such interesting character that an expert long versed in such studies was sent into the field to study the conditions better.
It is stated that his report was that the Elliott county fields should produce gems.

About year ago a party of Milwaukee capitalists visited the scene and it is said leased considerable land after making a close examination of the rocks on the surface ground. They stated that they would begin in a short time to develop the territory, but nothing ever came from their visit.

Elliot county is the scene of many moonshine raids, and there are many moonshiners there. It is also one of the counties which has been thoroughly searched for remains of the great silver mine of John Swift, of North Carolina, who lost a fabulously wealthy silver mine in the Kentucky mountains in 1765. The county had a population of 10,387 at the 1900 census.
Its county seat is Elliottsville.

A Remarkable Operation.

[Philadelphia North American.]

One of the most remarkable cases ever treated at the Wills Eye Hospital is that of Wm. Heritage, one of whose eyes had been cut in two by a piece of glass, resulting in the destruction of its power of vision, and who has had the use of the organ almost completely restored by an operation which included the sewing together of the cornea—the outer portion of the eye that resembles glass—with fine silk thread.

Heritage, who is 29 years old, was employed as the grinder of glass "stoppers" at the Glassboro works when the accident occurred.

The iris had been cut through extending down three quarters of an inch into the sclera. A part of the virtuous fluid was also lost, and the lower lid of the eye was cut five-eighths of an inch.

The Shelby County Colonization Company has filed articles of incorporation with a capital stock of $25,000. A committee will be appointed to go to Switzerland and secure colonists—so says a telegram in the "reliable" papers; but as the company was organized to import Swedes, wonder how the committee is going to find them in Switzerland? Housekeepers, of Frankfort, are also confronted with the servant problem, and propose to solve it by bringing in white servants. Attorney William Cromwell, of that city, representing about a dozen families, has gone to the Swiss Colony, in Laurel county, to secure the services of a number of young women as servants in Frankfort families.

Mark Twain's Wit.

Mark Twain, in his lecturing days, reached a small Eastern town one afternoon, and went before dinner to a barber's to be shaved.

"You are a stranger in the town, sir?" the barber asked.

"Yes, I am a stranger here," was the reply.

"We're having a good lecture here to-night, sir," said the barber. "A Mark Twain lecture. Are you going to it?"

"Yes, I think I will," said Mr. Clemens.

"Have you got your ticket yet?" the barber asked.

"No; not yet," said the other.

"Then, sir, you'll have to stand."

"Dear me!" Mr. Clemens exclaimed. "It seems as if I always do have to stand when I hear that man Twain lecture."

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25¢ at Oberdorfer's drug store.

To Talk Around the World.

[Sioux City (Iowa) Cor. New York
American.]

The Sioux City electricians, M. L. Garrett and E. W. Preston, seem to have found a way to talk around the world.

By the use of an invention just patented by them it will apparently be as easy for Americans to converse with their neighbors in Europe as it has been to talk 10 blocks across a city.

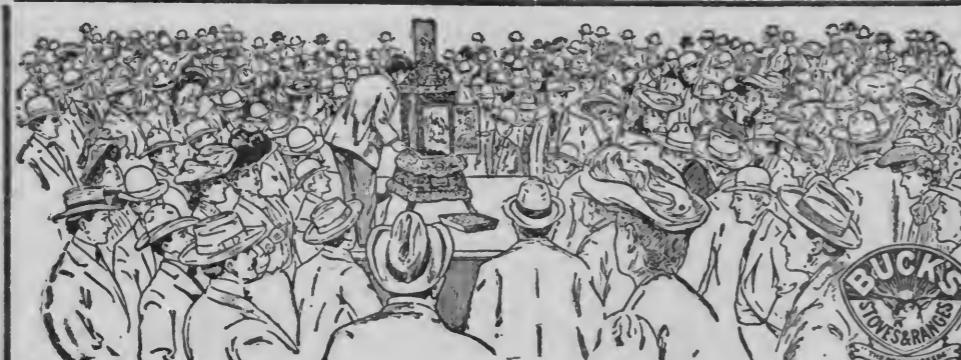

Only girdle the world with wire, these men declare, and they will make it possible for the Swiss maiden in her Alpine home to flirt in the morning with young men on Florida plantations. Only bisect the two American continents with copper wire, they declare, and it will be mere child's play for the Iowan to order cattle from Patagonia over the telephone.

And it is true the instrument is quite simple. Loosely speaking, it might be said that it consists of a telephone receiver put to the mouth of a telephone transmitter; in other words, that it brings the ear-piece of the ordinary telephone up to a mouth-piece that the ear-piece may talk into the mouthpiece and send on the sound.

Garrett and Preston solved the problem by putting together what are two separate telephones. The central piece is a Eureka transmitter, such as is used by many telephones to-day. This is simply the diaphragm or disk, seen in any mouthpiece, the vibrations of which are sent over the wire.

Back of this disk are placed two electro-magnets. These electro-magnets are similar to those used in telephone receivers, so, roughly speaking, it might be said that two receivers are put against this disk. The sound from one direction comes over one of these electro-magnets, or receivers, is communicated directly to the disk, which vibrates just as the disk in the original instrument, 200 miles away. Sound from the other direction passes over the other electro-magnet and to the disk and goes on its way in the opposite direction, and thus people at opposite ends of the wire can converse with one another.

Heretofore only one receiver-magnet has been used in devices of this kind and this is why it has never before been possible to talk but one way. The manner in which the two currents are kept separate is not explained by the inventors, who are not making public some of the details of their instrument.

DEATHS.

—Viola, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus McCarthy died at their home in Covington, Ky., September 3rd, and was buried in the Paris cemetery. One more spotless soul has gone, to join the Heavenly throng, One more tiny Angel voice to swell the Anthem song. One more home made desolate by the sable messenger's call, And yet like a thief in the darkness it comes to one and all. We can only remember that Jesus, when he took the babes on his knee, Said, "of such is the Kingdom of Heaven, forbid them not to come unto me."

S. —W. B. Greene, Sr., for thirty years stock agent for the L. & N. railroad, and one of the most widely-known men in Kentucky, died at Covington Tuesday, aged eighty.

Paris and Mt. Sterling Traction Line.

The report is now out that the Blue Grass Traction Company, which runs from here to Lexington, will shortly begin the building of a twenty-five-mile road from Paris to Mt. Sterling. Work on the right of way will shortly begin and the road will be completed within a year.

A motor station will be built at North Middletown.

This would be a great road for Paris and we have been trying to get some home people to take the matter up for some time, but it seems they have waited for outside capital to start the move.

Rural Route Boy Arrested.

Dock Epperson was arrested at Richmond by the postal authorities charged with robbing the mails on Rural Route No. 3, in Madison county. Epperson's arrest was effected by marked coin being placed in some letters. The prisoner is only fifteen years of age.

Reduced Rates to Ball Game.

The round-trip fare over Interurban from Paris to Hamilton Place, Sunday, to see the ball game will be forty cents. The Lexington team will play the Covington Blues, who have defeated the Cincinnati Shamrocks this season. This will be without doubt one of the best, if not the best, game of the season in this section and a large crowd will no doubt take advantage of the reduced rates from here to see it.

—About half the export cattle in Clark county have been sold at $4.75, a few bringing 5 cents. That price has been refused by a number of Clark farmers.

—The Veteran, owned by Ed. Bedford, W. A. Bacon and Al Thompson, won a $400 purse race at Dayton, O., this week. Best time 2:24 1/4.

—W. G. Dunnington, representing the Italian Government, has closed a contract at Paducah with T. J. Stahl for the purchase of this year's crop of dark tobacco. Mr. Stahl will buy for the Italian Government in Paducah and McCracken county about 3,000,000 pounds. This district furnishes Italy with about 14,000,000 pounds of dark tobacco.
